

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

My family has enjoyed not being interrupted several times in an evening with unwelcomed solicitors. The law in Indiana has been wonderful and I do not want to go back to receiving sales calls. Sales calls or a nuisance and simply is not the way I would do business anyway.